

Devi Singh

printmaker & Illustrator

Born in London, Devi studied Fine Art & Music at Bishop Otter College, Chichester, specialising in printmaking. After graduating in 1997 she began to produce hand-printed bespoke stationery and greetings cards under the name Dazy Daisy Designs. In addition to her work as an artist, Devi was the founder and owner of the popular south-London gallery and arts centre, Melting Pot.

Since 2003 she has devoted more time to producing prints and illustrations. Her work has been shown in solo and group exhibitions in the UK and appears in private and corporate collections. Corporate clients include: JH2 Media, KLM Royal Dutch Airlines, Blue Sea, St. Elizabeth Hospice, The Peligoni Club (Greece), Ship Co., Ashford Hospital, Classical Associates, Silversilver, Wooden Postcard Company, Choppings Hill, Elle, Thirty Second Films & more.

'The inspiration for Devi's work seems to emanate from forms and patterns found in nature. Organic designs become a language of shapes – from the geometry of her prints to the playful use of colour in her collages and illustrations. Her prints are structured, bold and compelling, whilst other pieces are whimsical and full of movement. There is a spontaneity which leads the viewer to feel that they have gate-crashed the moment of creation. This work is confident and inspired and, for me, never fails to captivate . . .'
